

Institutional Frameworks and Leadership for E-government Development

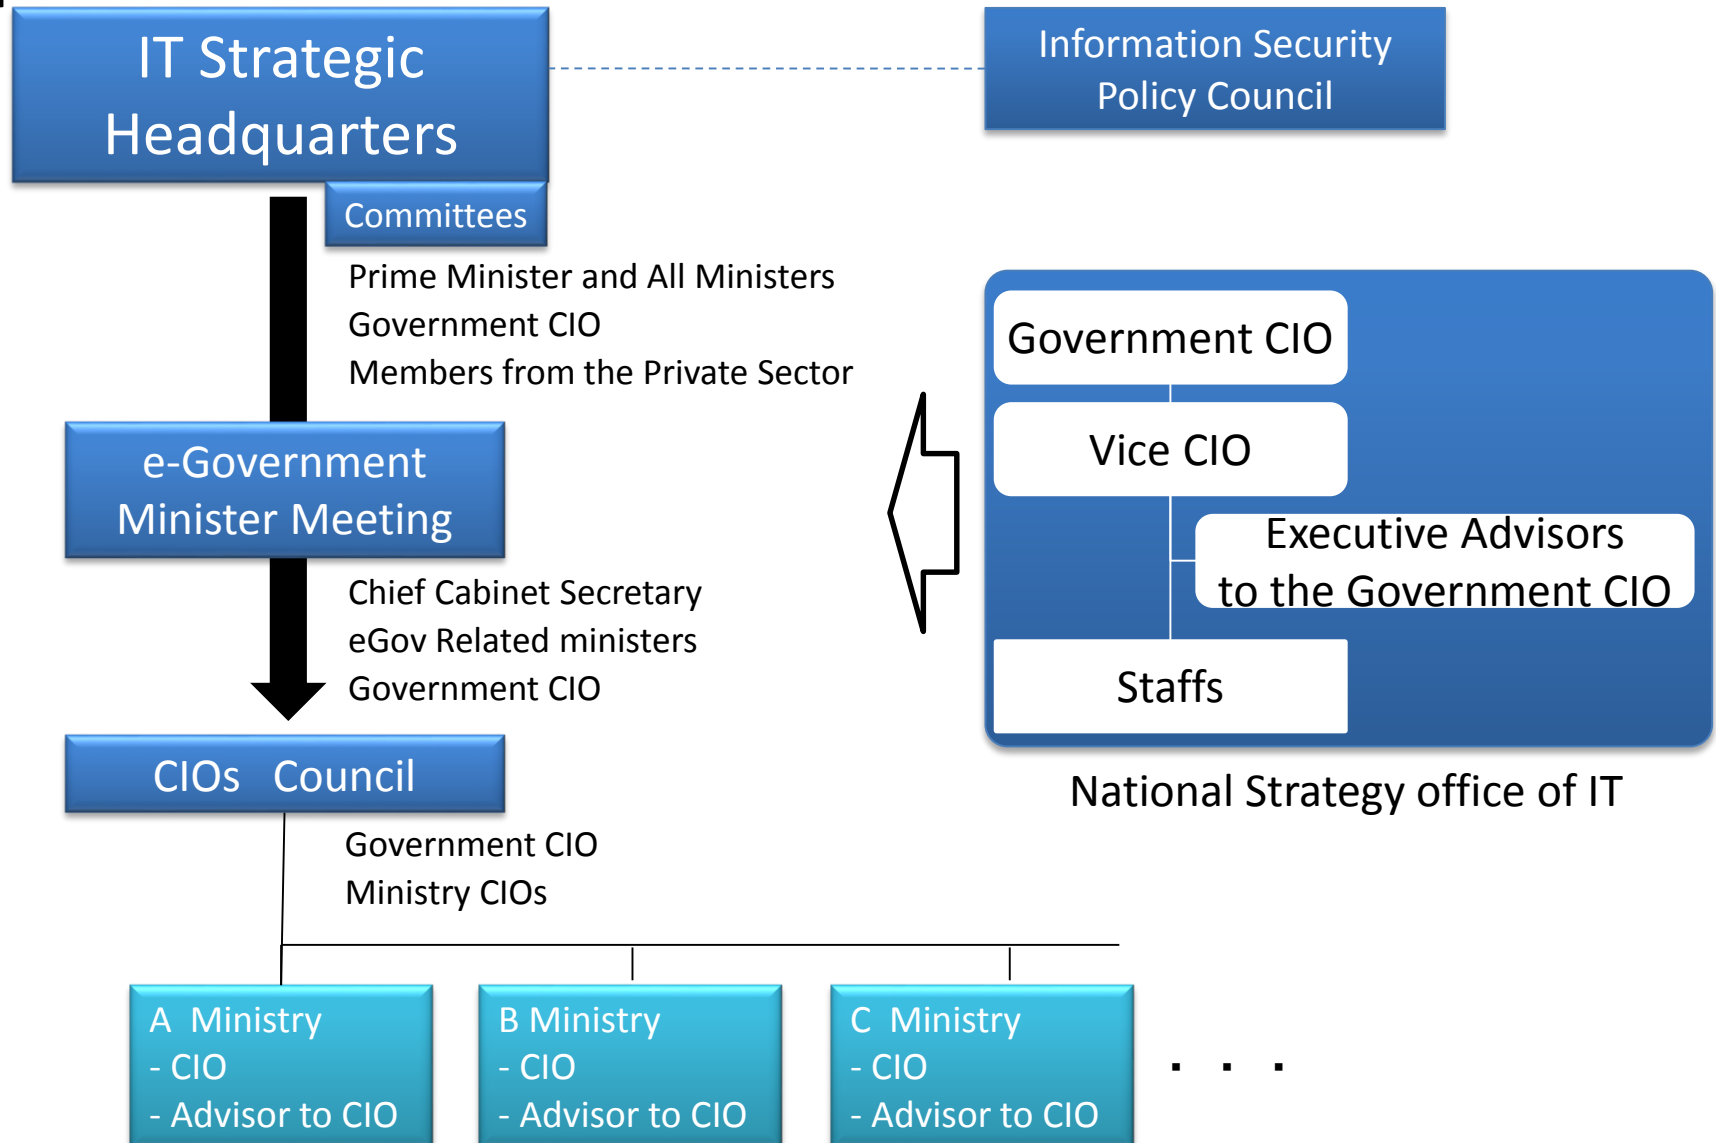

Kenji Hiramoto

Executive Advisor to the Government CIO
Cabinet Secretariat, Japan

The Organization for Promoting e-Government

- The GCIO was established in 2012 and it's become institutional position in 2013.

Principles

1. Eliminating Gridlock and Rejuvenating Japan
2. Becoming an IT Utilization Society at the World's Highest Levels

The Society models

1. A Society that Encourages the Creation of New and Innovative Industries and Services and the Growth of All Industries
  - Open data, Agriculture, Entrepreneurship, Local communities, Imaging industry and “Omotenashi (hospitality)”
2. The World's Safest and Most Disaster-Resilient Society where People can Live Safely, with Peace of Mind, and Comfort
  - Healthcare, Disaster management, Energy, Transportation and Work style
3. One-Stop Public Services that Anyone Can Access and Use at Any Time
  - E-Government, National-local collaborated service and IT governance

Government CIO & his team strongly promote the strategy

■ Transparency is one of the top priorities for the strategy.

Based on the facts, we get a process going forward.

- The GCIO held many hearings to the CIOs of all Ministries and program managers.

Not only checking the progress of each program, we offer advice and help .
